5. Would you like to suggest any topics for future workshops 4.7

5) Next step? Reusing/remixing RLOs (examples, experiences)
6) A hands on approach to using Glo-Maker with pre-existing goals. That way we can leave with the feeling that we did something concrete.
14) I do wonder if a future event (funded by individuals) would work.
17) Integration of more students
19) Inclusion of some general ICT technical aspects e.g. publish forms of image

6. Any other comments

3) Very useful forum for learning & networking. Love the informal format. Brilliant.
5) Very enjoyable and rewarding programme - many thanks to the organisers
6) I feel I coud have achieved more. I still don't know how. Perhaps we spent too much time discussing what we should do.
8) Very helpful for taking next step with our RLO - and inspiring to want to do more of them if we have time! Really good few days, thanks for all your help
9) Excellent program well organised and informative. People friendly and helpful. Dawn was excellent.
10) Has been invaluable as an opportunity to share ideas & pick up tips for information on available resources. Now have a couple of ideas for scripts I can work on.
11) Fabulous opportunity to find out what people are doing with RLOs; to communicate with people about Jorum; and to meet such a great & friendly bunch of people, organisers & participants alike - was made to feel welcome and relaxed very quicky. THANK YOU!
12) Sufficiently flexible to allow extra presentations - e.g. v.useful presentation on Jorum community & uploading
13) An extremely valuable 3 days - thank you. As a novice I was given the opportunity to work with others to develop a RLO from scratch. It was a productive and non-threatening environment.
14) Thank you very much for the time and space to work on projects. The social side was the icing on the cake.
15) Excellent opportunity for sharing, collaboration & recognition of pioneers in e-learning and TEL
